At the home of Messrs and Mrs. Lamb on March 26th, Christmas starts a week or so ahead when the little crèche (Manger) is put in the living room and when one of the children does a specially good deed, he or she is allowed to put in the crèche fragment pine needles.

men wear a looking out and a dart game. Michael is looking for a little and a beloved girl and Thomas demands a looking horse and a chess-board. On Christmas Day, every one goes to church and then the family comes home, and rushes to the Christmas tree. Spiced-Normans' wonderful dessert is the Christmas dinner special. Whipped cream, marshmallows, chopped pecans, raisins, cherries and Did any of you happen to watch the Christopher program on TV last night? It was very good.

The program they had asked us merchants to present a number of their children helping in making Christmas gifts to the children of the poor.

And didn't nearly all of our local merchants all have work?

Remember that the money spent by local merchants in Christmas shopping will not draw any new customers from other stores. It is not spending money to get new customers.

It is just the kind of thing that

When the call to arms comes, we have a religious theme or not, Christ-

WHERE TO PAY YOUR SCHOOL TAXES

FOR PROPERTY OWNERS IN THE DISTRICT

THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA has a long history of providing a high quality education for its residents. To ensure that this tradition continues, the District has established a system of property taxes that is fair and equitable. This system is based on the value of the property and the needs of the schools. The District has a variety of options for paying school taxes, including by check, credit card, or through a third-party service. The District also offers a variety of payment plans to help property owners manage their taxes. For more information, please visit the District's website at www.dco.dc.gov.
